

New website launches

Hello

Rowsley Village Hall’s new website has recently gone live and we would like to invite you to submit your organisation’s or club’s latest news, which we will include on the website and post on our social media platforms.

Please send your latest news directly to the web designers, whose services we have retained to help keep things up to date. You can send your news to Simon Turton of Baslow-based Opera PR & Communications (send email).

We have included information about all the clubs, organisations and community groups, but if you would like to amend your listing please don’t hesitate to get in touch.

Kind regards

Marianne Quick

Obituary

It is with great sadness that we learned of the death of Colin Jenkins, who had been our Hall Premises & Project Manager. He died peacefully at his home, following a short illness.

Colin played a pivotal role in developing the village hall’s new website and worked closely with both the Trustees and the web designers to help deliver a compelling new online presence.

He thoroughly enjoyed his role and was looking forward to helping to increase bookings and develop closer links with the local community.

Colin’s positive outlook, his ‘can do’ attitude and sense of humour will be missed by everyone who knew him and we would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere condolences to his family.
